

Artichoke Art Summer Camp 2012

Ages: 8 and up

Sleep Away

Artichoke Summer Camp offers a unique opportunity for your child to explore the wonders of nature while working on their artistic passions. In the French style of Planaire (painting landscape) this sleep away camp offers young girls an incredible opportunity to receive individualized attention. Our artists will explore masterpieces of great artists in different painting and drawing techniques.

Artichoke

Art Studio was founded in 1999 by Ksenya Litvak, who began giving private lessons to two children. Shortly, studio grew into a very successful school for children, teenagers and adults. The art program includes painting, graphic arts, composition, sculpture, puppet-making, and art history. Students participate in numerous arts exhibits including National Duck Stamp Contest, World Bank Children Exhibit, Doodle for Google national Contest, UN International Exhibit and Philadelphia Art Exhibit. Her students who wish to pursue art as a career have been accepted into prestigious art programs, including New York's Pratt Art College, Savannah Washington Institute of Art, Cleveland Art Institute, MICA, George Mason University.
